Hague, November 15, N. S.

THE States of Holland have ſent to the reſpective Towns of the Province, two Placarts which they have reſolv'd on, and which are to be publiſh'd forthwith. In conſequence of the firſt, the Duty upon the Digging and Exportation of Turf, as likewiſe the Duty for its Paſſage through the Province, which uſed to be farm'd out to the Pachters, are, for the future, to be levied by Collectors, only upon the Turf of the Province of Holland, which ſhall be exported and unloaded out of the ſaid Province. The other Placart concerns the Duties upon Weights and Meaſures, imported Grain and Tobacco, heavy Merchandize, and the fortieth Penny upon Shipping, which are alſo to be levied by Collectors in the trading Cities, and other Places where it may be found neceſſary. The Duty upon Salmon and Sturgeon is alſo comprehended in this Placart, as being almoſt of the ſame Nature, and levied likewiſe in the trading Cities, and other Places from whence the Salmon and Sturgeon are exported to Brabant, and elſewhere out of the Province, ſo that theſe Duties will fall chiefly on Foreigners, and the Inhabitants of the Province will contribute but little towards them. The Definitive Treaty of Peace was ratified laſt Wedneſday Morning in the Aſſembly of the States General, by the Deputies of all the Provinces; and the Ratifications were ſent that ſame Day to Aix la Chapelle, in order to be exchanged. General Burmania ſet out this Morning for Bruſſels, and Major General Cornabé has been joined to him in his Commiſſion.

Dublin, October 31.

Yeſterday being his Majeſty's Birth-day, the Great Guns were fired in his Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: And this Day at Noon there was a numerous Appearance of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, at the Caſtle, to compliment their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices upon this Occaſion, before whom an Ode was performed as uſual. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy.

Whitehall, Nov. 5, 1748.

His Excellency the Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, doth hereby ſignify his Pleaſure, that ſuch Officers of his Majeſty's Forces upon the Eſtabliſhment of Ireland, as are abſent from their reſpective Poſts in that Kingdom, do forthwith repair to them. Whitehall, November 3, 1748.

Whereas it hath been repreſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, that Sarah Green, late of the Pariſh of St. Saviour's in Southwark, Widow, aged about Forty Years, was, on the 23d Day of July laſt, aſſaulted in a narrow Walk leading to Newington Church Yard in Surry, by three Perſons, betwixt the Hours of Eleven and Twelve at Night, who threw her on the Ground, and abuſed and treated her in ſo violent a Manner, that ſhe languiſhed in great Agony, under the Care of the Surgeons of St. Thomas's Hoſpital, until the 19th Day of September laſt, when ſhe died; —— And whereas it hath been found by the Coroner's Inqueſt, that Richard Coleman, a Brewer's Servant in Bandy Leg Walk, Southwark, together with two other Perſons unknown, are guilty of the wilful Murder of the ſaid Sarah Green, and the Coroner's Warrant hath been iſſued thereupon for apprehending the ſaid Coleman, who hath ever ſince abſconded, and the other two Perſons are not yet diſcovered: In order to the diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concern'd in the ſaid wilful Murder, their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices are pleaſed hereby to promiſe his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be convicted convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement for such Discovery, a Reward of Fifty Pounds to such Person or to any other Person or Persons making the same as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.

Whereas it has been represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that, on the 6th of this Instant September, one Hugh Coffy was committed to Newgate, on strong Suspicion of Filing and Diminishing Portugal Gold Pieces: And as there is the strongest Reason to believe, that the said Coffy, and several others (who since the said Coffy's Commitment have absconded) have been concerned in Filing the Current Coin of this Kingdom called Guineas, and in dispersing the same: Their Excellencies are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any of the Persons concerned with the said Coffy as aforesaid, upon his or her discovering one or more of his or her Accomplices; as likewise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, to any Person or Persons, who shall apprehend and take any Person or Persons concerned in Filing and Diminishing the said Current Coin of this Kingdom, so as he, she or they may be convicted of the same.

J. Potter.
